A LITTLE BOY IS EATING AN ICE CREAM CONE.

Affirmative Statements
Present Continuous

A man are reading
Two men are reading

cook + ing = cooking
sleep + ing = sleeping play + ing = playing write + ing = writing

Note: present continuous: am / is / are + verb + ing
To form the present continuous of a verb that ends in y, add ing.
If a verb ends in e, drop the e and add ing.
Use the present continuous for actions that are happening now.

PRACTICE

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb.

1. (cook) A man and a woman are cooking
2. (eat) A little boy is eating an ice cream cone.
3. (read) A man is reading.
4. (play) Two teenage boys are playing cards.
5. (sleep) A baby is sleeping.
6. (talk) A young man and woman are talking.
7. (take) A tall man is taking a walk.
8. (fly) A boy and his father is flying a kite.
9. (play) A young man is playing a guitar.
10. (look) A woman is looking at the sky.
11. (listen) Two teenage girls are listening to the radio.
12. (hold) A little girl is holding a flower.
13. (fish) A man is fishing.

MAKE IT WORK

Answer the question.

What are you doing now? I'm ____________________________