

Information Commons

The focal point of campus is Estrella Hall, a building which houses the Information Commons, a national model for the integration of computing, library and learning services. The Information Commons offers an information-rich environment which supports the entire campus community - students, faculty, and staff. Students at Estrella Mountain have full access to this remarkable facility and the support services it provides to facilitate and enrich their college experience.

INSTRUCTIONAL COMPUTING

Estrella Hall
935-8150

The Information Commons offers personal computing support for the entire campus. The Commons presently houses over 100 networked workstations, with each workstation offering access to local, regional, national and international instruction and information resources through the campus network and the Internet, on both the Macintosh and Windows platforms.

Services offered (935-8150):

- Access to computing resources including the Internet
- Orientation for and support of self-paced courses
- Open training sessions on a variety of application software
- One-on-one support in the use of academic software
- Multimedia support for developing instructional materials
- Reserving Electronic Training Classrooms (935-8061)
- Remote access options
